Get Your Pet Licensed - It's the Law!

Pet owners could face fines without a current license

Every pet owner with a dog, cat or miniature pot belly pig over four months of age must obtain an animal license for each pet. Licenses need to be renewed every one to three years*. Pet licenses are available at City Hall in the Utilities Office Monday through Thursday and the Boulder City Animal Shelter by appointment only — call 702.293.9283.

You must present a valid rabies vaccination certificate with date of inoculation indicating spay/neuter status (invoices are not accepted).

Licensing Fees for dogs and cats:

- $4.00 per year (*license up to three years based on vaccination)
- Late fee: $2.00 per license

Licensing Fees for pot belly pigs:

- Initial fee: $100
- Renewal fee: $50
